Be Prepared!

Personal Camping Equipment List - sent home with your scout on 12/11/07. We realize it's the holiday season maybe consider some of the items a gift. If you are unable to some items, please let us know because we have access to additional camping equipment. Grub money will need to be brought to the departure site with permission slips in the amount of $8.00 per scout.

Welcome Hawkeyes'!

This is our first new patrol name. New patrol leader is Joel Hopper – congratulations!

Our Adult Patrol Advisor is John Robida – you have your hands full but he has 11 years experience.

USUAL NOTICES

Dues of $4.00 are due every month. This helps pay for the activities and awards. See Mrs. Burdine, troop treasurer for information.

Permission slip signed by the parents/guardian (s) is needed for all Scouts who want to go on camp outs. These need to be done at least 1 week before the scheduled campout or other noted times.

Full uniform is required at Troop meetings. If you scout needs help with obtaining a uniform, please let us know. Remember all Scouts are required to be in full uniform when traveling to camping activities.

Scout Office is located at the light on the corner of Jefferson and Pilot House (between Casey Chevrolet and Oyster Point). The phone number is 595-3356. See Sharon Blevins for assistance.

Class-A uniform consists of the following:

- Tan or khaki shirt
- Council patch
- Number 99
- Brotherhood patch
- Hawkeye patrol patch

Your Scout book should be brought with you every week to the Troop Meeting.
